

U.S. International Trade Commission
500 E Street, SW
Washington, DC 20436
United States
Phone: 202-205-1802
Fax: 202-205-2104
www.usitc.gov

Returned Mail Processing Record

|                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                       |           |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|-----------|
| Investigation Number: | 337-563                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Returned Date: | 4/13/2026 |
| Returned From:        | Roadmaster (USA) Corp.                                                                                                                                                                                           |                       |           |
| Document Title:       | Notice of Request for Written Submissions on Whether Certain Commission Exclusion Orders should be Modified or Rescinded, in Whole or in Part, Based on Changed Conditions of Fact or Law or the Public Interest |                       |           |
| Returned Reason:      | Not deliverable as addressed                                                                                                                                                                                     |                       |           |