Re: Certain Secondary Cylindrical Batteries, Components Thereof, And Products
Containing The Same, Dkt. No. 3926

Dear Secretary Barton:

Complainants LG Energy Solution Ltd. and LG Energy Solution Arizona, Inc. (“Complainants”) respectfully submit this supplement to their Section 337 Complaint dated July 21, 2026. At the Office of Unfair Import Investigations (OUII)’s request, Complainants respectfully make the following changes to the Complaint. These changes do not alter or impact the Complaint in any other way.

1. The ninth listed Proposed Respondent on the cover page, as filed on July 21, 2026, states:

Nanjing Chervon Industry Co., Ltd.
No. 529 and 159, Jiangjun Avenue,
Jiangning District, Nanjing (Jiangning
Development Zone), Nanjing, Jiangsu,
211111, China.

Complainants change that text to state:

Nanjing Chervon Industry Co., Ltd.
No. 529 and 159, Jiangjun Avenue,
Jiangning District, Nanjing (Jiangning
Development Zone), Jiangsu,

211111, China.

2. Paragraph 5 of the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, states:

Pursuant to Commission Rules 210.12(a)(12) and 210.10(b)(1), the Accused Products are secondary cylindrical batteries, components thereof (e.g., top cap assembly, electrode windings, separator, battery housings, and assemblies thereof), and products containing the same.

Complainants change Paragraph 5 to state:

Pursuant to Commission Rules 210.12(a)(12) and 210.10(b)(1), the Accused Products are secondary (i.e., rechargeable) cylindrical batteries, components thereof (e.g., top cap assembly, electrode windings, separator, battery housings, and assemblies thereof), and products containing the same.

3. Paragraph 91 of the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, states:

As discussed above, the Accused Products are secondary cylindrical batteries, components thereof (e.g., top cap assembly, electrode windings, separator, battery housings, and assemblies thereof), and products containing the same, thereof that infringe one or more claims of the Asserted Patents. Examples of the accused secondary cylindrical batteries include the EVE 2170 and 18650 battery cells.

Complainants change Paragraph 91 to state:

As discussed above, the Accused Products are secondary cylindrical batteries, components thereof (e.g., top cap assembly, electrode windings, separator, battery housings, and assemblies thereof), and products containing the same, thereof that infringe one or more claims of the Asserted Patents. Examples of the accused secondary cylindrical batteries include the EVE 2170 and 18650 battery cells. The exemplary claim charts attached hereto are intended to compare asserted independent claim(s) against representative Accused Products, such as the EVE 20P, 29V, 50E, 40PL, and 50PL. On information and belief, discovery will show that other Accused Products (including downstream Accused Products from Bosch, Koki, and Chervon) also meet the claimed requirements for each Asserted Patent.

4. Paragraph 125 of the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, states:

LGES is concurrently filing a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas alleging infringement of the Asserted Patents against Respondents.

Complainants change Paragraph 125 to state:

LGES concurrently filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas alleging infringement of the Asserted Patents against Respondents, Case No. 2:26-cv-00598-JRG-RSP.

5. Complainants submit herewith updated versions of Exhibits 2, 5, 7, 9 and 11 to the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, which are certified copies of the '257, '866, '924, '965, and '735 patents as received from the USPTO.
6. Complainants submit herewith updated versions of Exhibits 3, 6, 8, and 10 to the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, which are certified copies of the patent assignment records of the '257, '866, '924, and '965 patents as received from the USPTO.
7. Complainants submit herewith an updated version of the public copy of Exhibit 12 to the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026.
8. Complainants submit herewith updated versions of Appendices A, D, F, K, and N to the Complaint, as filed on July 21, 2026, which are certified copies of the prosecution histories of the '257, '866, '924, '965, and '735 patents as received from the USPTO.
9. Complainants submit herewith one (1) electronic copy of the prosecution history for priority application U.S. Provisional Application No. 62/572,083 for the '924 patent, as identified in Appendix V, pursuant to Commission Rule 210.12(c)(2).
10. Complainants further clarify that the building/real estate and labor investments set forth in Confidential Exhibit 23C can be further allocated to each of the Domestic Industry Products in due course. Complainants expect to have the information to make such an allocation during the investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

QUINN EMANUEL URQUHART & SULLIVAN, LLP
