What's the average shipping timeline?

Purchases from the Oura online store

If you are purchasing an Oura Ring for the first time, we recommend selecting the free sizing kit from the Oura online store. Oura Ring sizes are slightly different than standard US ring sizes, and going through our sizing kit process ensures you'll find your best possible fit, which will deliver the most accurate data and insights from your ring.

If you received a sizing kit from a friend or family member and have already determined your Oura Ring size, you can select your size directly from the dropdown menu on the Oura online store.

For US orders:

- Standard shipping: Most orders are processed and delivered within three days
- Best Buy in-store pickup: If inventory is available, you'll have the option to select in-store pickup at a nearby Best Buy during checkout on the Oura online store. See Best Buy \(US\) for more details.

For US orders:

- Standard shipping: Most orders are processed and delivered within three days
- Best Buy in-store pickup: If inventory is available, you'll have the option to select in-store pickup at a nearby Best Buy during checkout on the Oura online store. See Best Buy \(US\) for more details.

For orders outside of the US (EU and rest of world)

- Sizing kit delivery: Typically takes 1-2 weeks
- Oura Ring delivery: Once your size is confirmed, delivery usually takes 1-2 weeks

Purchases from authorized retailers

Oura products are also available through authorized retailers. Shipping timelines and availability will vary based on the retailer's policies. For the most accurate delivery estimate, check directly with the retailer at the time of purchase.

Does Oura offer expedited shipping?

Expedited shipping is currently available only in the US.

When available, expedited shipping costs $35, and can be selected in the "Shipping" section of the checkout process.

Expedited shipping is only available for sized Oura Ring orders.

Expedited shipping is not available for:

- Size later orders: If you've ordered a sizing kit, it will ship via standard shipping. Your Oura Ring will also ship via standard shipping after you submit your ring size in My Account
- Orders shipped to a PO Box: This will delay the shipping of the order and require an address change
- Orders that include a Stelo Glucose Biosensor

Expedited Shipping Timeline

Most orders are processed and delivered within 2 days.

Can I update my delivery address?

For orders that have not already shipped:

You can contact our Member Care Team here.

Note: If you need to update the delivery address for your Oura Ring, you'll need to contact our team prior to confirming your ring size.

Due to the differences in certain tax laws, it may not be possible to change your address to one in a different city, state, province, or country.

Which delivery carriers does Oura use?

Depending on your location, Oura delivers with FedEx, UPS Express Saver, DHL Globalmail, and DHL GLOBAL MAIL. To locate the carrier on your order, please reference the shipping confirmation email you received. Your carrier and tracking number can be found below your order number in the body of the email. By clicking on the tracking number, you'll be taken directly to the carrier's website.

How do I track my order?

After placing your order, you'll receive a confirmation email from us with your order details. When your order ships, you'll receive a separate shipping confirmation email with a link to your tracking details. It may take up to 24 hours for the carrier to update your tracking information, so please keep this in mind if it doesn't appear right away.

You can also go to your My Account portal to view:

- Order status (e.g., ring size needed, pending approval, ring shipped, ring delivered)
- Shipment status of both (1) your sizing kit and (2) your ring, once you officially confirm your size. You'll be able to track the delivery of your ring once it's officially shipped

If you don't receive an order confirmation email from us following your purchase, or if you have trouble contacting the carrier to resolve tracking or delivery issues please contact our team.

You can contact our Member Care Team here.

Where does Oura ship from?

Orders to the US are shipped from either the US or the Netherlands.

All other orders are shipped from the Netherlands.

What's the shipping fee on my Oura Ring? Will I have to pay an import fee on my Oura Ring?

Shipping fees are applied at checkout. Standard shipping to the US is $15. Please check the Oura online store for shipping fees in other regions and currencies.

As stated in our Terms of Delivery, all import duties and taxes required for orders to Canada, the EU, the UK, or the US are reflected in your final purchase price.

Orders to all other countries may require additional duties or import fees. Please check your local government or tax commission's website for more information on applicable, additional charges.

Also note that, depending on your location, the shipment carrier may apply additional fees such as advance payment, handling fees, or brokerage fees—all of which are outside of Oura's control. We recommend that you reach out to the local carrier office for more information on these charges.

You can view the countries we ship to that may have additional import fees. They'll be marked with an asterisk (*).
