Re: Ultra-Mek Inc. Patent Infringement Matter

Dear Mr. Powell,

Our firm represents HPC3 Furniture Holdings, LLC, d/b/a “Barcalounger,” (“Barcalounger”) in connection with its intellectual property matters. I understand that you recently sent a letter to Barcalounger’s President & CEO, Larry Smith, concerning allegations of patent infringement asserted on behalf of your client, Ultra-Mek, Inc. (“Ultra-Mek”). In the future, please direct any correspondence regarding this matter to my attention at the address provided above.

It is my understanding that Ultra-Mek believes that one or more furniture products marketed and sold by a third-party company, Living Style (Singapore) Pte Ltd (“Living Style”) allegedly infringes one or more of Ultra-Mek’s patents. I also understand that Ultra-Mek may be operating under the mistaken belief that these Living Style products originate from my client, since the products in question bear my client’s “BARCALOUNGER” trademark.

Please be advised that Living Style is a third-party licensee of my client’s “BARCALOUNGER” trademark for use in connection with certain furniture products manufactured, marketed, and sold exclusively by Living Style. Barcalounger is not the manufacturer or seller of these Living Style products. Therefore, to the extent Ultra-Mek maintains that any of these products allegedly violate Ultra-Mek’s patent rights, Ultra-Mek will need to contact Living Style directly regarding these matters.

If you feel that there are any remaining issues which need to be addressed between Ultra-Mek and Barcalounger, please let me know. Otherwise, we will consider this matter closed.

Thank you,
