Bringing your cloud infrastructure solutions to market faster

At Flex, we understand the complexities of data center and cloud infrastructure. From compute and storage systems to fully integrated racks, we use your business requirements, technical specifications, and time-to-market goals as guiding principles for every tailored solution we manufacture.

Choose from flexible engagement models and partner with us for customized infrastructure solutions — with the ability to grow at any scale. Flex offers single-targeted services like rack and enclosure fabrication and custom server designs, to holistic vertically integrated manufacturing, supply chain services, and fully integrated systems.

Flex offers a complete portfolio of solutions in a partnered ecosystem approach

- End-to-end capabilities including customized design services, manufacturing, and integration
- Engineered critical power solutions with a modular approach
- Global footprint enabling faster regional deployment of highly complex products
- Fulfillment and circular economy services addressing the full product lifecycle
